Student Right-To-Know Act

The Student Right-To-Know Act (Publ. 105-18) requires schools to disclose information about graduation rates to current, prospective students and the public.

The Student Right-To-Know regulations defines the reporting period to be based on starting September 1 of one year and ending August 31 of the ensuing year.

United Healthcare Careers College in complying with the Student Right-To-Know Act, discloses the following graduation rates for the enrollment period of September 1, 2014 through August 31, 2015 for the Medical Assistant/ Pharmacy Technician program.

The school enrolled fifty-seven (57 – 100%) students in its Medical Assistant/ Pharmacy Technician program. Fifty-three (53= 93%) students completed their training within the 150% of the normal time to graduate.

The remaining four students (4 = 7%) either did not graduate or did not complete within the 150% of normal time to graduate.
